

Where to study? Guaranteed enrollment at FH-Erding!

University of Applied Management in Erding presents information on the enrollment guarantee in new Bachelor degree programs: Thursday, February 03, 2011 at 18:00 (Lange Zeile 10)

Deciding where to study after graduation in the "double-grad" year of 2010/11 does not have to be stressful. New programs at FH-Erding offer guaranteed enrollment:

- Wirtschaftsrecht
(Bachelor of Business Laws – LLB): a new program bridging the gap between law and business studies. FIBAA accredited.
- Intercultural & International Management
(Bachelor of Business Administration): study business (BWL) in English! Learn how to succeed in global and international business environments. FIBAA accredited.

"Our motto 'A better way to learn' is truly what we offer in Erding. We will keep our ratio of one Professor for 30 students in 2011," says Prof. Dr. Florian Kainz, Vice-President of the University of Applied Management. "While others are nervous about 2011, we are happy to have new students join our programs," explains Florian Kainz.

The event on Thursday, February 03, 2011 starting at 18:00 in the University of Applied Management, Lange Zeile 10 (1st floor), 85435 Erding, is open to everyone, especially graduating classes of schools (Gymnasien, Fach- und Berufsoberschulen), as well as parents and teachers. Detailed information will be presented, and we look forward to welcoming you with some finger-food and refreshments.
